(e) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH & FAMILY WELFARE (SMT. PANABAKA LAKSHMI)

(a) & (b) The Department of AYUSH allocates funds to the States, including the State of Uttar Pradesh through its three Centrally Sponsored Schemes viz.;

i) Schemes for Quality Control of Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani and Homoeopathic drugs.

ii) Schemes on Hospitals and Dispensaries.

iii) Scheme for upgrading and strengthening of colleges of Ayurveda, Yoga, Naturopathy, Unani, Siddha and Homoeopathy (AYUSH).

The Schemes on Quality control have been launched with the purpose to strengthen Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani and Homoeopathic State Drug Testing Laboratories/Pharmacies for Quality Control and Quality Assurance to meet the requirements of Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and Rules thereunder and also to meet Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) requirements under Schedule-T.

The Scheme on Hospitals and Dispensaries aim to improve the drugs supply position in rural dispensaries and if considered necessary to encourage setting up of general and specialized treatment Centres of AYUSH in the allopathic Hospitals and to supplement the efforts of State Governments for ensuring proper supply and stocking of essential AYUSH drugs in rural area Dispensaries.

The scheme for development of Institutions seeks to supplement the efforts of educational institutions in order to make the task of upgradation of education standards easier. The scheme has following components:-

i) Development of AYUSH UG Colleges

ii) Assistance to PG Medical Education

iii) Re-orientation Training Programme for AYUSH personnel

iv) Renovation and Strengthening of hospital wards of Government/Government-aided teaching hospitals of AYUSH.

v) Establishment of Computer Laboratory in ISM&H colleges.

vi) Upgradation of academic institutes to the status of State Model Institute of Ayurveda, Siddha, Unani, Homoeopathy.

(c) to (e) A statement of funds allocated for Homoeopathic Institutions in Uttar Pradesh is attached at Annexure. The Department of AYUSH release funds only after receipt of Utilization Certificate in respect of earlier grants.
